MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS,

The Market More Active at a Material Advance in Prices.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 .- Money on call was many at 2 to 24 per cent., closing offered at 2. Prime mercantile paper, 41 @61 per cent. Sterling exchange was dull but steady at $4.841 for sixty-day bills and $4.881 for demand. The total sales of stocks to-day were 252,593 shares, including the following: Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, 7,000; Erie, 12,695; Lake Shore, 31,400; Louisville & Nashville, 4,-380; Missouri Pacific, 5,300; Northwestern, 7,-900; Northern Pacific preferred, 10,955; Oregon Transcontinental, 5,100; Reading, 35,000; Richmond & West Point, 15,900; St. Paul, 39,781; Union Pacific, 13,300; Western Union, 9,850.

The stock market was a shade more active today and quite strong, especially in the afternoon, and prices this evening are in most stocks materially higher than those of last evening. There was a more confident tone to the speculation this morning, and many operators have held aloof from the market for some time were buyers to-day, and while the foreigners put out some stocks in the forenoon, they were later buyers of their favorites, and throughout the day the principal sellers were the traders. The expected heavy engagements of gold for export did not materialize, as only $800,000 were taken, and that had no influence either way. In the afternoon the upward movement inaugurated was accelerated by reports from Chicago in regard to the new agreement in the Southwest, and later by rumors of a complete settlement of trunk-line difficulties, although there was nothing definite upon that issue. New England was again a marked feature in the list and became quite strong, though it was not until later that the general list joined in the movement. When it did. however, Lake shore was very prominent, but all the trunk lines' stocks, as well as the Southwesterns, grangers and the Northern Pacifies, made marked improvements. The extent of the rise encouraged the taking of profits toward the close and some reaction was had, though a portion of the loss was afterward resovered.

There was a little more vim to the speculation at the opening this morning; the first sales were generally made at a slight loss from last evening's figures, and under some selling from Chicago further slight declines were established. The market, however, showed a sudden change in its temper and became strong throughout, although the New Englands were the only stocks that displayed any unusual strength. After the first demand was suppled the list sank into intense duliness, but in the afternoon there was a renewal of the upward movement, and more animation was shown in the dealings. The best prices were reached toward delivery hour, after which time there was some reaction, but the market closed at the highest price of the day. Railroad bonds were dull and devoid of feature of importance. Government bonds have been dull, but firm.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Operators were again surprised at the action of the wheat market, today, which, after a lower opening, became strong, and closed quite firm at higher prices. The opening was very unsettled, with sales from 102 below yesterday's closing figures, but almost immediately rallied, selling up 11c from the inside point, reacted le, and sold up lic, reaching a point 2c above inside figures. From this point prices settled back Ic, again rallied to outside figures, and the closing was lic higher than yesterday. Corn again ruled easier, and a lower range of prices was established. The feeling, on the whole, was considerably weaker, and opening sales were to under the closing prices of yesterday, after which the market was steady for a time, became easy, and closed 3 de lower for December and lie lower for November than yesterday.
Oats were quiet and steady. A feature of the trading was the increased business in transferring contracts for December to May at 4c difference. Quite an active speculative trade was reported in mess pork, but the feeling was somewhat unsettled and weak. Offerings were liberal early, and opening sales were made at 100 12te decline, which was quickly followed by a further depreciation of 30 @ 32te. Later the market showed rather more steadiness and prices rallied 74 @ 10c and the market closed steady. Trading was moderately active in lard and the feeling was easier. Prices receded .121 @.150 but rallied again .021@.05c and closed steady. A fair trade was reported in short-ribs. Prices

Dry Goods.

The cotton-goods market was firmer. Woolen goods show a tendency to higher prices.

Wool. BOSTON, Nov. 27.—The wool market has been quieter and sales have been comparatively light, though a fair average business has been done. All though a lair average business has been done. All the strong features previously noticed are retained, and supplies can be obtained only at full figures. Sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces have been made at 33@35c for X and XX, and 31@33c for Michigan and New York State X. In combing and delaine fleeces there has been a fair movement, but sales have been restricted by small stock and in-difference of dealers about selling. Territory, Texas and other unwashed fleeces have been in good demand, with sales to some extent in the range of 45@ 50c, as to quality, scoured. Pulled wools are in good demand and firm. Foreign wools are in demand and are in poor supply.

Trade Dragging a Little on Account of the Strike, but Better Than on Monday.

$5.75@5.85; no Western selling.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 27. While trade has hardly recovered from the effects of the strike, the out-bound shipments today, while in values there were but few fluctuations. The wool market carries a strong tone. The Boston Commercial Bulletin of Saturday

"The wool market is even stronger than last week, and the sales, though smaller than the exceptional total marketed at that time, are still large when compared to the ordinary week. There has been a free inquiry throughout the week, and sales would have been considerably larger if there had been the wool desired by buyers. Some of the brokers have piles of orders on their desks unfilled because they cannot find the wool with which to fill them. The wool is here but is not offered for sale. Holders and commission houses are very indifferent as to selling, and there is a general disposition to hold back until after the opening of the Loudon sales on Tuesday, at which time an advance is anticipated. Meantime, it is easy to sell wool at last week's quetations, and some slight further advances have been established. Some of the most conservative houses in the trade have at last wheeled into line, and if there is any break in the confident expectation on the part of the wool-dealers of a further advance, it is not visible to the naked eye."

The hide market has become more inactive and prices have weakened in the last week. Large imports of foreign hides is assigned as the reason of this renewed weakness. In graceries there is a fair movement. Sugars are not as strong as a week ago, while coffees are firmer. In the produce markets there is a good deal of activity, and with the approach of Thanksgiving the poultry market is very active, prices carrying a steady tone. Butter and eggs are in good demand at full quotations. Game is coming in more freely, while prices, with a better demand, are firmer, but not higher.

GRAIN. Tameness is the leading characteristic of the local market. Receipts of wheat are light and so is the demand. Corn meets with some inquiry at about the range of prices of several days past. Oats are in active demand for local consumption, the arrivals not equaling in quantity the demand. Feed rules dull, while hay is in good demand at quotations. #### Amelie Rives's Latest Plans. Richmond (Va.) Special.

"My next novel has not yet been begun," said

Mrs. Amelie Rives-Chanler to-day. "I am going to Europe to think over and perfect my ideas for a romance, in which I hope the critica will find something to commend as well as condemn. My last story for at least two years I have written for Mr. Collier's Once a Week. I call it 'My Lady's Tongue.' Of course everybody will laugh at that title: nevertheless it has a meaning. My idea is a woman who, with a sharp tongue and a sharper temper, has also a good heart, and who, by her solid honesty and genuine disinterestedness, makes her shrewishness a benefit to those on whom she vents it. I consider it the best short story that I have ever written. I have studied every character in it from life, and I don't believe that I've exaggerated any one the least little bit. Of course, there will be lots of people to say that I have, but what does it matter! When an avalanche has fallen on you, you don't mind being snow-And the charming creator of "The Quick or the Dead?" fanned herself languidly, and sniffed at a bunch of fresh out roses which Mr. Chanler handed her on his knees.

DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY

The Most Complete Newspaper in all Departments in the State of Indiana.

No newspaper in the West is more widely on more favorably known than the Indianapolis Jouanat. By the display of enterprise and strict attention to the wants of the reading public, during the great campaign of 1888, it has taken a leading position among the most prominent journals of the country, and is certainly among the best. Among the newspapers of the State it is pre-eminently the best, and Indiana readers can nowhere else find what they want in the way of State and local news. It circulates largely in every county in Indiana, and has correspondents in every town and village of importance. Its market reports are prepared with the greatest care possible, and no pains or expense are spared to make them accurate and absolutely reliable. It is the only newspaper in the State owning; and publishing all the news furnished by the two great press associations (the Western Associated Press and the United Press), in addition to which it farnishes an abundance of special service from all the principal cities of the country. It has been, and will in future be the aim of the publishers to make the Indian-APOLIS JOURNAL a perfect and complete newspaper, deficient in no department or particular. The paper challenges comparison with any of its coutemporaries. No Indiana reader, c ertainly no Indiana Republican, should be without the JOURNAL. While it is thoroughly and soundly Republican in politics, devoted to the interest of the Republican party, the JOURNAL will not allow its news to be colored by partisan bias. but will give the news of the day without fear or

In addition to its news features the JOURNAL regales its readers with the productions of some of the best known literary men and women of the day. Many of the most celebrated magazine writers and authors are contributors to its literary columns, making it a paper for the household and home circle. Special arrangements have been made for features of this character, which will appear in the JOURNAL during the coming year. These appear most largely in the SUNDAY JOURNAL, which is a special edition, and can be subscribed for and received exclusive of the DAILY
